Vee sings Vee NEW Release, featuring: Bobby & Robby Vee

Media Involved Blog News:

Robby explains his inspiration behind the 'Vee sings Vee' project... "Before my mother passed away in August of 2015, she suggested and produced a project with me now titled 'Vee sings Vee'. The idea was to put a record of songs together that my father and I wrote together or collaborated on together to be released as Singles over the course of a year. The first Single is called 'This Love', a song that was recorded for the "Crickets & Their Buddies" project but never made the record. Vee sings Vee is currently available in Download Only at iTunes & amazon.com.

Twin Cities 2016 Auto Show! "Vee" for Victory over Alzheimer's. Mar 12-20

Bobby's Vee's Mustang will Appear at the 2016 Twin Cities Auto Show:

"Vee" for Victory over Alzheimer's, 60's Rock-n-Roll Idol Bobby Vee's 1965 Ford Mustang will be featured at the 43rd Annual Twin Cities

Auto Show's 'Classic Car Walk', March 12-20, in the Minneapolis Convention Center. In 2011, Bobby Vee was diagnosed with Alzheimers and retired from performing. His Mustang and the Classic Car Walk is a unique and rare opportunity for him to reunite with the public and share a piece of his personal collection.

The teen idol launched his career with the Minneapolis recorded hit song 'Suzie Baby' on 'Soma Records' and went on to produce thirty-eight Top 100 hits from 1959 - 1970, including 7 Gold Records. He has appeared in four motion pictures and countless television programs and he has performed in numerous worldwide tours over his 50 year career. U.S. Billboard Magazine called Vee, "One of the top ten most consistent chart makers ever", with hits such as 'Devil or Angel', 'Rubber Ball', 'Take Good Care of My Baby', 'Run to Him', 'The Night Has a 1000 Eyes', 'Come back When You Grow Up Girl' to name a few.

Bobby Vee's Ford Mustang will be displayed in support of the Alzheimer's Foundation of America. Bobby's son, Robby Vee, also a recording artist, started the 'Blue Moon Blue' project in 2015 which included the release of his single 'Blue Moon Blues' for the Alzheimer's Foundation of America's Music Community "Artists Raising their Voice for Care". Robby got involved in support of his father and to raise awareness for AFA www.alzfdn.org. The Classic Car Walk is an opportunity to share Bobby's collector piece and to thank the public for all the support they have shown him.
